you by "regular M. D.'s" or certified physicians pretending to repair damages with these substances, and the dear people whom they claim to protect against quackery are so educated up to it that they are swallowing these poisons and pills as hot cakes. Yes, they swallow them until they become perfect wrecks, physically and mentally, and this is what the medical practitioners call "protect the dear people!"

You must bear in mind that Nature and no doctor living claims to do more than to assist nature in curing disease, stead to assist nature with the al forces and natural methods than to assist nature in curing disease, so instead to assist nature with the natural forces and natural methods you take poisons or other chemicals, why not employ natural methods, the real life force of the body. The natural means and modern methods as practiced by the Psychopathic Doctors of 52 Fairfield avenue are a sure relief and permanent cure for every natural in that flesh is heir to.

In their private offices they have never yet injured any one. This work has long passed the experimental stage. The results obtained are the quickest, safest, most of the world.
